Subject: Subscription and Activation of Project MUSE

All faculty members, research scholars & students may kindly note that the Central Library has been provided free access to Project MUSE by INDEST Consortium. The access to the mentioned resource is up and running now.

Project MUSE is a leading provider of digital Humanities and Social Sciences content, though it also covers Architecture, Sciences, Technology and Library Science. Its electronic journal collections have supported a wide array of research needs at academic, public, special, and school libraries worldwide, since 1995. MUSE books and journals, from leading university presses and scholarly societies, are fully integrated for search and discovery, and currently include 2, 35, 657 articles and 2, 72, 274 chapters by 180 non – profit publications.

The URL for accessing Project MUSE is: <http://muse.jhu.edu/>

The access to the mentioned resource has been activated on all currently active campus IP Ranges (as confirmed by Mr. H. S. Chouhan, In - charge Networking).
